

ITALY: PROTECT MIGRANT WORKERS

The Italian authorities should:

Respect, protect and fulfil the right to just and favourable conditions of work of all migrant workers, regardless of their migration status.

Revise the country's migration policy in order to provide better protection for all migrant workers and to better take account of the reality of the labour market.

Ensure that the primary purpose of labour inspections is to safeguard the rights of all workers, particularly the most vulnerable

Amend current legislation to allow irregular migrants to effectively seek remedies for violations of their labour rights.

Respect, protect and fulfil the right to just and favourable conditions of work of all migrant workers, regardless of their migration status.
Revise the country's migration policy in order to provide better protection for all migrant workers and to better take account of the reality of the labour market.
Repeal the provision of the Security Package criminalizing "illegal entry and stay".
Ensure that the primary purpose of labour inspections is to safeguard the rights of all workers, particularly the most vulnerable.
Amend current legislation to allow irregular migrants to effectively seek remedies for violations of their labour rights.

REPUBLIC OF KOREA: PROTECTION OF MIGRANT WORKERS

Dear President,

I urge you to ratify and implement International Labour Organization (ILO) conventions, in particular the four fundamental ILO Conventions which South Korea has not yet ratified: no. 87 (Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise), no. 98 (Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining), no. 29 (Forced or Compulsory Labour), and no. 105 (Abolition of Forced Labour).

I further call on you to immediately stop all practices which result in obstacles or deterrents for migrant workers to actively participate in trade unions and to remove obstacles preventing migrant workers from participating in the Seoul-Gyeonggi-Incheon Migrants' Trade Union (MTU), in particular by recognizing its status as a legal union in South Korea in line with domestic and international law and standards.

Your Majesty,

I am very concerned about the cases of Nigerian national Suliamon Olyfemi and Indonesian domestic worker Siti Zainab Binti Duhri Rupa, who are at imminent risk of execution in Saudi Arabia.

Considering the death penalty to be the ultimate cruel, inhumane and degrading punishment, I call for the death sentences of all those on death row in Saudi Arabia - including Suliamon Olyfemi, Siti Zainab Binti Duhri Rupa and many others - to be commuted as a matter of urgency, with a view towards the abolition of the death penalty.

I call on you to ensure that international standards for fair trials be observed.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Minister,

I am writing to you in the case of Konstantina Kouneva. I urge you that the main investigation into the case of Konstantina Kouneva to continue, and for it to be thorough, independent and impartial leading to the perpetrators being brought to justice.

Please keep Konstantina Kouneva informed about the progress in the investigation.
I urge you to protect the rights of migrant workers by fully implementing existing legislation.

I demand the protection of other human rights defenders and trade union members from similar attacks.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Director,

I am writing to you with regard to the prisoner of conscience Zhu Chengzhi who is held under "residential surveillance".

I urge you to immediately and unconditionally release Zhu Chengzhi; and to ensure that in the meanwhile he is not held in secret and incommunicado detention.

I call on you to guarantee that Zhu Chengzhi and his family are free from harassment and able to exercise their rights to liberty of movement and freedom of expression.

Yours sincerely,

Your Majesty,

I am writing to you to express my concern about Mahdi 'Issa Mahdi Abu Dheeb, former board member of the Bahrain Teacher's Association (BTA).

I urge you to release Mahdi 'Issa Mahdi Abu Dheeb immediately and unconditionally, as he is a prisoner of conscience, held solely for exercising his rights to freedom of expression and assembly.

I call on you to order an immediate independent and impartial investigation into his allegations of torture and other ill-treatment, publish the results and bring anyone found responsible to justice.

Yours sincerely,

Señor Juan Manuel Santos

Dear Excellency,

I am writing you to express my concern about the detention of the painter and decorator Shahrokh Zamani, who was sentenced to 11 years imprisonment by the Revolutionary Court of Tabriz in August 2011.

I urge you to release Shahrokh Zamani immediately and unconditionally, as he is a prisoner of conscience, held solely for exercising his rights to freedom of expression and association.

In the meantime, I call on you to grant him access to his family and lawyers.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Minister,

I am writing to you to express my concern for the safety of prominent trade unionist Gertrude Hambira. Her home was attacked by armed men, her office has been raided by officers from the CID, and she is now in fear of her life.

I urge you to provide her with effective protection and to carry out a prompt, full and impartial investigation into the circumstances of her attack in her family home. The perpetrators should be brought to justice in a fair trial. I also urge you to ensure that the Zimbabwean police immediately stop the harassment of Gertrude Hambira.

Finally I urge you to investigate and end the harassment and intimidation of human rights defenders and political activists by state security agents.

Yours sincerely,
