Dear Head of the Investigative Committee,

I urge you to do everything in your power to ensure the immediate and unconditional release of Daria Egereva.

Daria Egereva works peacefully to protect Indigenous languages and cultures. She belongs to the Indigenous Selkup community in Western Siberia and focuses on climate issues, Indigenous culture, languages and women's rights.

She was detained in December 2025. The Russian authorities accuse her of having links to an Indigenous rights organisation that they have designated as "terrorist". However, Daria Egereva has merely exercised her human rights peacefully.

Her case reflects the increasingly repressive actions of the Russian authorities against human rights defenders, environmental activists and representatives of Indigenous communities.

I believe that Daria Egereva is being unjustly detained and must therefore be released immediately and unconditionally. I also call for an end to the persecution of Indigenous activists, environmental activists and human rights defenders in Russia.

Yours sincerely,
